University Class Request Form

Taking a university class enables an eligible student to earn high school and college credit (dual-credit) or college credit only toward a college degree while still in high school. More information can be found on our website.

Instructions

- Juniors must have at least a 3.5 GPA on the unweighted scale. Seniors must have at least a 3.0 GPA on the unweighted scale.
- Some courses require a placement test or a certain ACT score.
- The academic office will register the student for the university class. Students will be notified of their university class schedules before the end of first semester.

Please write the name of the course and the catalog number on the line provided (e.g., History of Civilization/Hi 101).
